

2020 BOOK Discussion Group

Time: First Monday of every Month
Everyone is Welcome

- January:     Becoming by Michele Obama (auto biography)
- February:    The Adults by Caroline Hulsa (fiction)
- March 18th:   The Hate You Give by Angie Thomas (Vermont Reads: The Book Discussion is in conjunction with Wilmington and will be At the Pettee Memorial Library at 6:00 pm; On March 26th The movie will be shown at the Whitingham Municipal Center.
- April:        Educated by Tara Westover: she enters a classroom for the first time at 17; born to survivalists in the mountains of Idaho; she never went to a doctor or to school; she was self educated; she then went to BYU and then on to Harvard.
- May:         Bird Cloud by Annie Proulx (memoir)
- June:         The Nickel Boys by Colin Whitehead
- July:         Being Wrong by Kathryn Schultz: Journalist explores why we find it gratifying to be right and so maddening to be mistaken and how this attitude toward error corrodes relationships. She claims that error is both a given and a gift...one that can transform our world views, relationships and ourselves.
- August:       Olive, Again by Elizabeth Strout
- September:   The Great Alone by Kristin Hannah: a novel set in 1974 Alaska. Ernst Albright attempts a fresh start for his family after he returns from the Viet Nam war.
- October:      The Maytrees by Annie Dillard: a novel of lifelong love set on Cape Cod among the Provincetown artist's colony people beginning in the 1940's.
- November:    The Rosie Effect by Graeme C. Simson; sequel to The Rosie Project.
- December:    Fleishman is in Trouble by Taffy Bradesser-Akiner: funny full of shrewd observations, barbed wit and deep insight.